

Howards Corner

Word

"I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me."

Now I do not know exactly how your heart thinks but knowing that we both are human I have a pretty good idea. We want it to be for our good. It is usually for our personal benefit in this world. We want things to go well, and we will have comfort and peace in our lives. Maybe we will have exceptional blessings in this life. But I have come to know that most think in terms of themselves and have not considered that they are on the wrong side of the eternal God and creator of the universe. We have buried ourselves in ourselves and have not considered that we have been created by our Lord God who has His own purpose for our lives, but we for the most part have ignored Him and placed ourselves on the top of the "pecking order" of importance. That is not the right "pecking order".

God from the beginning has established the correct "pecking order". He is Lord of Lords and said to us "I am the way the truth and the Life". Why then do we put ourselves ahead of Him? Well it is simple we have made ourselves God and have not understood we have lied to ourselves or should I say we have allowed ourselves to be deceived by the "Prince and power of the air" which is the great deceiver which has been at work from the beginning but we have allowed him to work his way into the churches of today but not just today but has been going on from the beginning of churches. He has been successful to even get into the pulpits of the churches and into the bishop's seats and to look so righteous but has no truth in him.

Have you not read and studied the unrighteousness of the Middle Ages churches of the unholy catholic churches and the persecution of the righteous people that were burned at the stake? Do we have no understanding at all? Do we not yet see all that is called righteous is not righteous but instead full of lies and deception.

There are many that call themselves Christian but are not. The churches from the beginning have been deceived and have had many evil men take the helm of the churches but are of Satan but the Lord has allowed this to happen by His plan and will eventually work for His kingdom's sake.

Well, I am going to leave it to you. The question is in your hands –no not for the kingdom of God to succeed, for the kingdom is secure. It is not up to you it has already been written and been put into the eternal bank of certainty, but the question is for you to answer today. Are you going to accept the gift of eternal life and be a part of this marvelous kingdom or are you going to allow the falseness of the modern and the so easily accepted traditions of churchism to fool you into believing a partial at best understanding.

I know I have been there and been deceived but was awakened by the sovereign hand of God that brought understanding to me that I was bankrupt in churches and what has been taught to us in today's spiritually weak churches. If your trust is in churches and its lack of teaching and power for your salvation, then you and many will go on to the pit –but-but-but He filled me with His mighty spirit that has mercy on me and lifted me out of that lostness. And He will do so for you if you place your trust in Him alone for your salvation.

Your eternity is in your hands –You still have the choice if you have breath and a mind to think. Sooner or later your time will come to an end and then the judgement.

It does not matter what denomination or branch of “Christianity” you profess there is only one “Kingdom of God” and only those that have found the truth that Jesus came to reconcile the world to God the Father by His obedient life and His obedient death on the cross --gave His life for us and by His blood shed for us attained reconciliation between God and man. With this work done for us on the cross He has then demonstrated by His resurrection that He has the power to give life to us that are true believers.

There is no other name given for the salvation of our souls. Therefore, no other religion or practices or names of men or church organizations have the power to give eternal life. Some churches may be better than others at teaching you about your salvation but still they do not save. All will bow our knees to Christ Jesus now on this earth or we will bow our knees to Him at our judgement.

It is a personal decision, and it cannot be made by anyone else but by you. Your church cannot make it for you—they have no power to make that decision. It has been given into your hands and you must make for yourself that eternal decision.

So, I started out with Word-- which is Jesus the Christ. His words are written and are spoken in spirit by many witnesses from Pentecost until today, but many have twisted it and perverted it and somehow by Gods hand has survived the onslaught of the enemy down through these 2000 years. The enemies were not always outside what we have called the “Church” but have found a place inside the church and have misled many.

Beware of false teachings today for there is a falling away and an apostate church that is looming over the church world of today.

Seek the Word and you will be rewarded!

Howard