Do you have the courage to speak when all around don't want to hear?

It has become very difficult in today's world to say what you know to be true because they are waiting with all manner of intimidation methods to frighten you with much nonsense which does not even make sense. The world has gone insane with all these evil ideas which is from the enemy of God and the Lord Jesus Christ. Who can stand against the many that have distorted truth and inserted lie instead. Who can reason with illogical people?

The only hope today is to trust in the spirit of God to intervene for the force of insanity is from the spirit world. It is not only the world that has lost common sense, but the churches have joined in and supported these ideas. So many churches have deserted the message of Jesus and substituted man's ideas which is the long-time problem with mankind. We have not believed God and His word but have changed His word with what we think it should say. It is therefore not God's word but is man's word which man likes best because there is no judgement in man's word, but God's word says plainly that there is a judgement coming.

So, we in the mainstream of Christian life face a major challenge. Do we go with flow of the world and play it safe or do we dare to have courage and face the leviathan –that great serpent that is the enemy of God. It may cost you much but if you do not it may cost you eternity. We can see it from the pulpits of the many churches—they do not have courage to tell the message of judgement of the world and that goes for the non-believers sitting in the pew and pretending that they are believers. I have heard of preacher that knew the truth of the word but would not preach it because it might offend some of the congregation. They would rather preach to tickling ears 2 Timothy 4:3

For the time is coming when people will not put up with sound teaching, but, having their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own desires

Well, I guess I am in “duck soup” then because I have been speaking out about this church deadness for a while. It is past time to offend these dead congregations that week after week come but never understand the gospel and are never changed.

So, people look around and see what is going on –read the news –listen to the rhetoric from all sorts of voices. We have entered a cultural war and there is no basic truth to stand on because one says this, and another says that, and they do not just say it but take to the streets to express it. There is no trust between these voices. There is shouting instead of talking. What is going on?

There has been a new spirit of distrust and half-truths and lies and selfishness that has entered this nation. Well, it is not really new, but it is old. It started in this world when in the garden of Eden, he the enemy of God first showed his trade of lies and deceptions and it has continued since then. But today it has exploded to a new level.

The power of the spirit of God has held it in check but we that believe the word of God and the message of Jesus have decreased to a minority view and so many are simply Christian in name only. Those that are true believers have the spirit of God in our hearts and lives and because of this power in our lives He has held back the enemy who is the great deceiver.

The churches have fallen away, and the deceptions have led many churches to leave the word of God and have invented new words that we want God to say and therefore the gospel of Jesus Christ has been perverted and this spirit of anti-Christ has led the churches astray –false doctrine is rampant – the word is no longer the basis of church belief. So, the church—that is the formal church—has quit preaching the truth and it is hard to find any truth today. We as a church no long stand on a solid foundation which is Jesus Christ –the rock of truth.

God however always has a remnant of true believers that have the Holy Spirit abiding in our hearts to keep the truth of the gospel alive and truth to spring up to oppose these false words of today. Although we are few, God is with those that believe and honor His word and follow Jesus Christ.

So be warned church. The enemy is spreading all manner of lies and misconceptions. These things I have written today are mostly about the USA, but Europe has already fallen and there are little true churches there and I just read today that one church in Germany held a worship service with Artificial Intelligence doing the preaching. Well, my software has an artificial intelligence that makes corrections and checks spelling and grammar but so far, I can override what I do not want to say. Today's writing was especially troublesome because I could not control where the cursor was, so I guess I had better proofread carefully.

I think this is just the beginning of artificial intelligence deceiving the world and the church, but humans have done a pretty good job of distorting the word on our own. You better be on guard for they can make it sound like the truth, but it is not. Remember, in Revelation the image of the beast will be set up and talk and deceive many people.

Do not let computers or people mislead you but stay in the word and the spirit of Christ Jesus for He is truth.
